A Settlement has been reached with Kimpton Hotel & Restaurant Group, LLC (“Kimpton”) in a class action lawsuit about a security incident that occurred between February 16, 2016 and July 7, 2016.

On August 31, 2016, Kimpton announced that it was the victim of a cyber-attack in which the attackers installed unauthorized malware on certain servers that processed payment cards used at some Kimpton hotels and restaurants (the “Security Incident”). The malware used in the Security Incident searched for track data read from the magnetic stripe of payment cards as it was being routed through affected servers. For a list of affected Kimpton hotels and restaurants, go to www.KimptonSettlement.com.

Visit the website or call 1-855-789-0900 to get a Detailed Notice with more information about the Settlement.

What is this about? The lawsuit claims that Kimpton was responsible for the Security Incident because Kimpton did not take appropriate care to protect its payment card systems from hacking. The lawsuit seeks compensation for people who had losses as a result of the Security Incident.

Kimpton denies all of the claims and says it did not do anything wrong.

Who is included? You are included in the Settlement if you reside in the United States and your payment card information was compromised as a result of the Security Incident.

What does the Settlement provide? The Settlement provides two types of payments to people who submit valid claims.

- (1) Reimbursement of up to $250 for unreimbursed out-of-pocket expenses and documented lost time that resulted from the Security Incident. The Detailed Notice has the complete list of categories of reimbursable out-of-pocket expenses.
- (2) Reimbursement of up to $10,000 for unreimbursed extraordinary expenses that were more likely than not caused by the Security Incident.

Depending on the number of valid claims, some payments may be reduced.

How do you ask for a payment? To get a payment you must submit a claim describing any expenses you incurred as a result of the Security Incident. To get a Claim Form, visit the website or call 1-855-789-0900. The claim deadline is August 22, 2019.

Your other options. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement Class by June 8, 2019, or you will not be able to sue, or continue to sue, Kimpton about the legal claims this Settlement resolves, ever again. If you stay in the Settlement Class, you may object to it by June 8, 2019. The Detailed Notice explains how to exclude yourself or object.

The Court will hold a hearing in the case, known as Parsons v. Kimpton Hotel & Restaurant Group, LLC, Case No. 3:16-cv-05387-VC, on June 20, 2019, to consider whether to approve the Settlement, and a request by Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees of up to $800,000 inclusive of reasonable costs, expenses, and an incentive award of $5,000 for the Class Representative. You or your own lawyer, if you have one, may ask to appear and speak at the hearing at your own cost, but you do not have to.
